Enlightenment is a hot topic on Google and it's not just about Steven Pinker's new book "Enlightenment Now." Ramaji and Ananda Devi at rasatransmissioninternational.com are taking massive action to prove that personal spiritual enlightenment is positive, permanent, life-changing and delightfully real.

This stable awakening into nonduality is available within months if you are ready to go for it thanks to the revolutionary new RASA spiritual transmission. The good news? It fulfills all the high humanistic standards advocated in Pinker's brilliant tome. Full enlightenment is about being fully human!

The benefits of nondual spiritual enlightenment are surprisingly useful and practical. Here is a short list of the positive changes that you will experience after you achieve your stable spiritual awakening via the fast-acting radical RASA spiritual energy blessing: fearlessness, effortless ease, tremendous confidence, deep trust in life, spontaneous living, natural friendliness and warmth towards people and animals, each moment is tremendously precious, a continuous sense of well-being, feeling wonderfully wide open instead of uptight and overwhelmed, fully present, your five senses open like a flower to rich sensual joy, nothing is wrong, everything is okay if not downright perfect! These are just some of the benefits of achieving stability at the highest level of nonduality.

The highest level of nonduality according to Ramaji and Ananda Devi is LOC 1000. LOC is an acronym for Level of Consciousness. All of this is explained in Ramaji's 750 page spiritual masterpiece also called "1000." There he offers a scale or map of levels of consciousness based on his own experiences. "1000" can be found on Amazon.com at <https://www.amazon.com/1000-Consciousness-Awakening-Spiritual-Teachers/dp/1497433401/>.

Enlightenment is also called "unity" or "oneness" or "seeing what is" or "Self-realization" or just plain "being awake." Classic spiritual traditions like Zen Buddhism and Advaita Vedanta have taught that achieving this stable awakening to true Self can be difficult and take a very long time. Plus extreme discipline, long hours of meditation and perhaps celibacy may be expected of the serious aspirant.

Thanks to the RASA spiritual transmission, all of that is now ancient history! People in the West are very busy. They needed a new way to awaken that did not require long retreats or major interruptions with family and lifestyle. Enter the RASA spiritual blessing which takes just 15 minutes in silence.

It is recommended that spiritual seekers get two RASA spiritual transmissions per month. At that rate most people will achieve LOC 1000 and be permanently enlightened within a year. Advanced spiritual seekers often reach LOC 1000 or full enlightenment within two to six months. Since just one live 7 day spiritual retreat can cost $3,000 including travel and lodging, getting RASA is a smart economic decision.
